

Dunlop Flour

"It Makes Everything"

Your Humble
Servant

Sets you free from worry and disappointment.
Dunlop Flour always brings the best results.

THE DUNLOP MILLS, Richmond, Va.

SOCIETY

(Continued From Second Page.)

for the South. They will visit several points in Florida and then go to Cuba. To Meet Tuesday.

The central committee of the Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will meet Tuesday, December 6, at noon, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society.

Auxiliary Bridge.
The Ladies' Auxiliary will have its regular bridge contest on Thursday afternoon, December 8, in the Jefferson Club, at 320 o'clock.

St. John's Circle.
St. John's Circle of King's Daughters will meet Monday afternoon, December 5, at 3:30 o'clock, with Mrs. Charles Eaton, 213 East Broad Street. The thank offering and social held November 28 was a decided success. About 150 books were gathered and sent to the Sheltering Arms Hospital.

Yesper Services.
Regular vesper services will be held in the rooms of the Young Woman's Christian Association building this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Rev. W. L. Ball will speak, and Mrs. W. T. Shepherd will sing.

Chapter Dinner.
The women of Holy Trinity Church will give a luncheon and dinner in the parish house on December 9, beginning at 11 A. M. They extend a cordial invitation to their friends to be present.

At the Woman's Club.
On Monday afternoon, December 5, Dr. Leon H. Vincent, of Boston, will address the Woman's Club on "Thackeray." Dr. Vincent is considered one of the best of platform lecturers and the club is anticipating much pleasure in hearing him. He presents his subject with the charm and grace of a brilliant conversationalist, and his lectures are clever, humorous and at the same time thoroughly instructive. On Wednesday afternoon the literary Round Table will discuss Macerlinck's "Bluebird," with Miss Annie Steger Winston as chairman.

Miss Adele Williams, chairman of the art committee, has been fortunate enough to secure the services of Mrs. Sara Snowden Mitchell, president of the Plastic Club, of Philadelphia, for Monday afternoon, December 12. Mrs. Mitchell is an authority on artistic subjects and is said to be a most charming speaker.

Neal-Broadbudd.
The wedding of Miss Mary Mercer Broadbudd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Manly Broadbudd, of Newtown, King and Queen counties, to Ernest Palmer Neal, of Chatham, will be celebrated on December 7 at 4 P. M. in the home of the bride's brother-in-law, John A. Covington, of Stevensburg, Culpeper county, the Rev. George Hurt, pastor of the Stevensburg Baptist Church, officiating.

The house will be decorated with evergreens and white chrysanthemums. Mrs. John A. Covington will render the wedding march, and the bride will be attended by Miss Emma Maxwell Broadbudd, of Richmond, as maid of honor, J. E. Neal, of Danville, will be his brother's best man.

The bride will enter with her brother, Manly Broadbudd, Jr., and be given away by him. She will be gowned in a traveling costume of dark blue cloth, with a blue velvet turban and carry bride roses.

The maid of honor will wear cream cloth, hand-embroidered, and have a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink gauze.

Luncheon will be served the bridal party before the ceremony, and many beautiful wedding gifts will be displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Neal will go North for their wedding trip, leaving immediately after the ceremony, which will be witnessed only by the families of the contracting parties.

Recognition for Richmond Artist.
In the exhibitions of the New York Artists' Club and the Philadelphia Art Exhibit a number of water-color pictures by Miss Adele Williams, of Richmond, have been hung and are attracting favorable notice.

In Richmond, visitors go in nearly every day to see her pictures, which are being now shown at 320 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. Thurston's Recital.
The December recital of the Richmond School of Expression took place Friday night at Mrs. Thurston's studio, 17 south Third Street.

An interesting program, which the spirit of Christmas pervaded, was rendered by the following pupils: Misses Marguerite Stoltz, Ethel Lassiter, Allen Ford, Amanda Pitts, Nannie Crawford, Helen White, Frankie Hoover, Merle Franck, Miriam Douglass, Mary Barnes, Florence Kidd, Helen Nuckols, Mary Nuckols, Helene Luca, Imogene Hazelgrove, Myrtle Hobson, Marnie Ruth Cobb, Marie Gisselbrecht and Ernest Coonts.

A large number of patrons and friends enjoyed the work of the students.

In and Out of Town.
Mrs. Edward B. Turnbull, Jr., of Lawrenceville, is the house guest of Dr. and Mrs. R. Thomas Ennett at 216 East Franklin Street.

Mrs. W. O. Lovelace, of Halifax, and Miss Ruth Barksdale, of Randolph, Va., are visiting at Col Alto, the home of Dr. George Barksdale.

Dr. E. N. Callisch has returned from Cambridge, Mass., where he delivered an address at Harvard University.

Mrs. M. W. Crocker and little daughter, Florence, of Columbus, O., are visiting Mrs. Crocker's sister, Mrs. C. C. Johnson, of 123 North Lombardy Street.

Mrs. W. J. Johnson has returned to Richmond, after a pleasant visit to New York.

Mrs. William Sterling, of Norfolk, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Houston Waller, in Richmond.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Crockett, who spent a week in Richmond, have returned to Max Meadows, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard W. Bowen, who have been spending their honeymoon in the South, have returned to their home in Newport News.

Mrs. William Broadbudd Robins left Thursday for New York to join her son, Frank G. Robins, of Havana, Cuba, who is in New York on a visit. Mrs. Robins was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Henry P. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Starr Jackson spent several days with Dr. and Mrs. Ramon D. Garein, 2618 East Broad Street, on their way to their home in Norfolk, after a Thanksgiving week's visit to Mr. Jackson's parents in Charlottesville.

The State Supreme Court having adjourned, Judge George M. Harrison has returned to his home in Staunton.

Miss Ida Trosvig left for her home at Grove, Va., after a short visit to Richmond.

Miss Agnes Dean, of Minneapolis, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. M. Howison, in Staunton, is now visiting Richmond friends.

George Conrad and family, of Harrisonburg, are in the city. They will spend a part of the winter in Florida.

Harry Frazier has returned from a visit to Mrs. Erskine Miller, of Staunton.

The Misses Royall, of this city, spent Thanksgiving week with their uncle Edmond Carter, of Rumford, Va.

Miss Ellen Broadbudd, of Bowling Green, is the guest of Miss Nannie Noble.

Miss Cecil Field, of West Point, whose marriage to Mr. Butts, of North Carolina, will be celebrated on December 7, was the guest of honor at an entertainment given Wednesday by the Misses Lewis, of West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Enslow have returned to Richmond after a visit to Captain and Mrs. W. G. Kable, of Staunton.

Misses Emily Waddill, Julia Ellerson and Dr. Carroll Baggerly spent the week-end with Dr. Bagby, of West Point, Va.

Mrs. John Goech has returned from a visit to friends in Newport News.

Miss Isabel Riegan Thom, of Baltimore, was presented to society by her mother, Mrs. P. Lea Thom, at a reception and dance given in the Thom residence, 244 West Lanvale Street, Thursday evening.

Misses Mildred and Mary Woodward have returned to Woman's College after a pleasant visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Woodward, of West Point.

Mrs. L. R. Hamberlin is the guest of her brother, Mr. Wilson, in New York.

Miss Carrie White, who has been visiting in Richmond, has returned to Charlottesville.

Mrs. J. C. Minson has been a recent guest in the home of R. W. Crockett, at Goodwin's Neck, Va.

J. V. Randolph and family, of Baltimore, have removed to the home purchased by Mr. Randolph from Mr. Cole, just outside of Charlottesville.

Miss Mamie Brown Allen, of Staunton, is the guest of Mrs. L. L. Scherer, in Richmond.

Roanoke Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., December 2.—The largest and most beautiful social function of the week in the Magic City was the reception given Thursday afternoon in her home by Mrs. A. R. Hammond, in honor of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lynn R. Hammond. The house was beautiful in floral decoration and for several hours was thronged with guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitwell W. Cox have returned from their bridal trip. Mrs. Cox was Miss Emily Bebee, of North Carolina. A number of charming entertainments will be given next week in her honor.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Walter Michael informally entertained at cards in her home, Tenth Avenue, Southwest. The most enjoyable concert given here in a long time was that Tuesday night, when a number of well known local musicians participated in a musical for the benefit of the Roanoke Free Medical Dispensary. They were assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Louis de Haas, of Holland, and Mrs. G. L. de Haas, who is from The Hague, Netherlands, charmed the audience with her old Dutch songs. She possesses a lovely soprano voice, beautifully trained.

Mrs. John Addison Reid entertained three tables at bridge Tuesday evening in her home, Fourteenth Avenue.

Mrs. W. L. Tinsley gave the third of a series of informal bridge parties Tuesday afternoon.

The Ken After Club was entertained Wednesday afternoon by Miss Sallie Gray.

Misses Bess Evans, Elizabeth Hamilton, Rosa Rogers and Mayme Jennings went up to Blacksburg Friday to attend the V. P. I. Thanksgiving games that night. They returned today.

The Dramatic Art Class of Virginia College presented two delightful little plays in the college auditorium last night.

Miss Bonnie Chafford, of Lynchburg, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Mrs. Lamar Rutherford Lipscomb, of Washington, is the guest of Mrs. Lucian Socke.

Mrs. N. H. Harrison is visiting friends in Martinsville.

Mrs. James C. Cassell will entertain at cards at Hotel Roanoke Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gordon Merrill entertained the Margaret Lynn Lewis Chapter, D. A. R., yesterday at Hotel Roanoke.

Miss Emma Cannady, of Martha Washington College, Abingdon, has returned to school after spending a few days at her home here.

Warrenton Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Warrenton, Va., December 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Luther H. Chamberlain, who have been spending the winter at Strasburg, are in Warrenton for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Walker, of Charlottesville, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Wood.

Miss Kitty Bell, who spent Thanksgiving in Warrenton, has returned to school in Baltimore. Miss Frances Sublett has returned to Washington. Hugh Spillman, Lowell Clark to the Boys' Country School in Baltimore, and Stewart Williamson to Frederickburg.

G. S. Nausby, of Baltimore and Charlottesville, spent several days this week in Warrenton.

Mrs. George S. Smith and Miss Sowers and Mrs. Mary Sowers spent part of the week in Washington.

Miss Alice Smith, who has been the guest of Mrs. G. S. Smith, has returned to this week to her home in New Orleans. The silver tea given on Saturday last by the Chancel Guild, of the Episcopal Church, realized over $100 for the organ to be placed in the new church, and more than $50 was realized on Wednesday afternoon at the tea given by the Parish Aid Society, Mrs. Taylor Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cooper are at Waverly after a visit to friends in Clarke county.

PATRICIAN
Shoe

A Seasonable
Suggestion

As a

Christmas Gift

For

Mother, Sister,
Wife or Daughter

A Pair of

"Patrician Shoes"

Are always most acceptable and prove a pleasant reminder of your good judgment and thoughtfulness. There is a distinctness about them recognizable wherever seen. Even those adapted for roughest use are decidedly suggestive of feminine grace, while the more dressy styles are simply indescribably dainty and charming, and withal have splendid wearing qualities. Is it any wonder the most smartly gowned women are everywhere adopting them?

$3.50 and $4.00

The New Shopping District

Next to
J. B. Mosby & Co.'s

Christmas Gift Suggestions

From Buchanan's Treasure House of Beautiful Jewels, Gold and Silverware

For Ladies—

Diamonds are pre-eminent—incomparable in their sparkling, lovely dignity. No matter whether in a ring, bracelet, pendant, necklace or brooch.

Small Gold Watches, Plain or Chased Bracelets, Brooches plain or set with pearls or other precious stones—you will find them here in abundance. In Silverware we have Elegant Toilet Sets, Brushes, Mirrors, Combs and Manicure Sets, Chatelaines, Purses, Card Cases, and a host of pretty things to please the eye—mind—and pocket.

In Cut Glass Ware we can satisfy every desire.

For Gentlemen—

We have fashionable Signet Rings, Gold and Silver Watches, Chains for day or fobs for evening wear, Scarf Pins, Cuff Links with monograms, Cuff Buttons, Fancy Vest Buttons, Gold Pencil Cases, Card and Cigarette Cases, Match Boxes, and a host of equally choice and seasonable gifts—all at very low prices, considering the superb quality of the goods.

Visit Buchanan's Treasure House soon and make YOUR choice of presents.

D. BUCHANAN & SON,

111 East Broad Street

Publicity Bureau of Richmond.

Miss Tiffany, of Fauquier county, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tiffany.

Miss Lily Pollock, who has been the guest of Mrs. Jennie Hurstall, has returned to her home at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Evans and Miss Evans, who have been visiting Mr. G. W. Nelson left this week for Baltimore.

Miss Belle Boston was the guest for several days this week at Mr. E. S. Turner.

Mr. W. Crosby and Mr. Harris, of New York, motoring to Florida for the winter, spent some time this week in Warrenton.

Miss Anna Strother, of Washington, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Stradler.

Frank Caldwell, of Falls Church, spent Sunday last with his sister, Mrs. J. C. Caldwell.

C. W. Smith is at home from a visit to her daughter in Glenview in Warrenton.

Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Maxheimer are at home from Rochester, N. Y.

Miss Caroline Bastable, of Calverton, spent Monday in town with friends.

W. W. Wilson spent the week-end in Maryland.

Mrs. E. W. Gibb and Miss Nina Gibb are at home after a stay of several weeks in New York and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Sara Hoge and Herman Hoge were in Washington several days this week. James Foster, of Manassas, was a visitor this week to John S. Gaines and Colonel and Mrs. Granville Gaines.

E. B. Ash, of Washington spent the week-end in Warrenton with his family.

Dr. Lauriston Hardin, Dr. W. B. Mason and Dr. E. Beverly Slater, of Washington, were week-end visitors in Warrenton.

Miss Alice Carter, who was at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Carter, for Thanksgiving, has returned to Culpeper, where she is spending the winter.

H. C. Spillman has returned to Baltimore after spending some time in Warrenton.

J. D. Wise visited Washington this week.

C. O. White, of Cumberland, Md., was in Warrenton the first of the week.

Miss Halleck, of Mobile, Ala., is the guest of Mrs. Gayler Clark at Mrs. M. G. Douglass.

Miss Mollie Carter is in Washington with Mrs. Yates.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. King, of Baltimore, were in Warrenton this week.

Wytheville Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Wytheville, Va., December 3.—The Five Hundred Club held its Thanksgiving meeting at Mrs. James Stuart Ward's on Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Charles Boyd entertained the club and a number of invited guests Wednesday evening.

Miss Withington Feaguer was the hostess of a card party Monday afternoon at the home of her sister, Mrs. John Whitman.

Mr. Wilkinson has returned to New York after spending Thanksgiving with his daughter, Mrs. Charles McAllister.

Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister, of Fort Chiswell, are visiting friends in Lynchburg.

Miss Ella Howard, of Painesville, was the week-end guest of Mrs. Katie Miller.

Phlegger Campbell, who spent Thanksgiving at home, returned Monday to Hampden-Sydney College.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Frankle left Thursday for a visit to New York.

Houston Brown is spending the week in Chicago.

Rev. S. E. Mercer, pastor of the Weldon Methodist Church, goes to conference with a fine report, showing all pledges and assessments paid in full, and $50,000 subscribed and partly paid for the new Methodist Church here, now nearing completion. The first service is to be held Christmas Day in the new church.

"The Woman's Guild of Grace Episcopal Church" has been holding a very enjoyable bazaar here this week. An amusing feature was the "masquerade luncheon" Friday evening.

Weldon Social News

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Weldon, N. C., December 3.—Miss Rena Camp, of Franklin, is visiting Miss Jeannette Daniel.

Miss Annie Travis, of Raleigh, is spending a few days here with her sister, Mrs. W. R. Smith.

Mrs. N. M. Austin spent the latter part of the week in Norfolk.

Miss Mary Rodwell, of Macon, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Rodwell, has returned home.

Miss May Hampton, of Greensboro, was the guest the past week of Miss Annie Musgrove.

Miss Eunice Clark has returned to her school in Wilmington, after spending a week here.

Miss Sallie Mason Long, of Northampton county, is visiting Miss Lizzie Hill.

Rev. S. E. Mercer, pastor of the Weldon Methodist Church, goes to conference with a fine report, showing all pledges and assessments paid in full, and $50,000 subscribed and partly paid for the new Methodist Church here, now nearing completion. The first service is to be held Christmas Day in the new church.

"The Woman's Guild of Grace Episcopal Church" has been holding a very enjoyable bazaar here this week. An amusing feature was the "masquerade luncheon" Friday evening.

Perfumes
Please
People

Especially ladies. Gentlemen should bear this in mind when choosing presents for wives, sisters, mothers or sweethearts. The Finest Perfumes the domestic and foreign markets of the world have produced are to be obtained at reasonable prices from the

Childrey Drug Company,

First and Broad Streets.

Publicity Bureau of Richmond.